

Tungsten Denibbing Tool

The Power-TEC Denibbing Tool is a fast and effective way to remove paint and clear coat imperfections, without the need for respraying. Its clever design enables the user to remove trapped dust particles, small dirt build ups, or other irregularities quickly and easily.

Additional Information

- Designed to remove small clear coat defects.
- Precision cut sharp edges, designed to remove dust particles & give uniform results.
- Manufactured from tungsten steel.
- Recommended for use with shim-masks, please see Part No. 92439.
- Supplied complete with carry cord & plastic storage case.

<http://powertec.co.uk/product/92665>

